

Michigan Grape & Wine Industry

State Economic Impact Report | 2017

There are more than 130 commercial wineries that use a majority of Michigan grown fruit to create many varieties of wine, including red, white, fruit, hard cider and specialty wines such as ice wine, sparkling, and fortified.

$1.8 million
in wages
annually

2.75 million
gallons of wine annually

$5.4 million
total economic impact

47,299

1.7 million
annual tourist visits

$853.6 million
in annual taxes

3,050
Wine grape
vineyard acres

$252.7 million
in tourism spending

$13.5 million
in charitable contributions

Michigan Wines

Learn more at michiganwines.com/economic-impact

Source: 2017 Economic Impact Report by John Dunham & Associates