

Michigan Grape & Wine Industry

State Economic Impact Report | 2017

There are more than 130 commercial wineries that use a majority of Michigan grown fruit to create many varieties of wine, including red, white, fruit, hard cider and specialty wines such as ice wine, sparkling, and fortified.

$1.8 BILLION
in annual wages

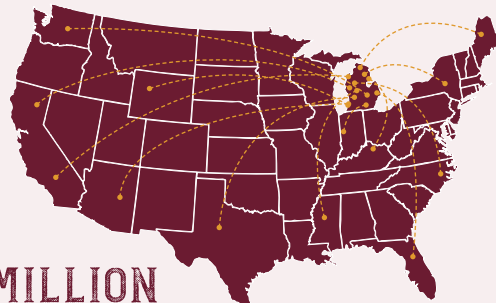

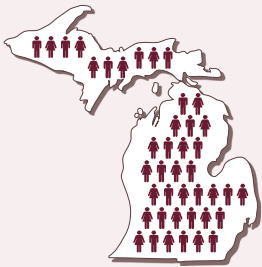

2.75 MILLION
gallons of wine
annually

$5.4 BILLION
total economic impact

47,299 JOBS

1.7 MILLION
annual tourist visits

$853.6 MILLION
in annual taxes

3,050
wine grape
vineyard
acres

$253 MILLION
in tourism
expenditures

$13.5 MILLION
in charitable contributions

michigancraftbeverage.com

   @micraftbeverage

Learn more at michigancraftbeverage.com/about/industry

Source: 2017 Economic Impact Report by John Dunham & Associates for Michigan Grape & Wine Industry Council.